

Washington, D.C. - Congressman John Adler (NJ-03) met Wednesday with Secretary of Veterans Affairs General Eric Shinseki. Rep. Adler serves on the Veterans Affairs Committee and will be working closely with General Shinseki to address the needs of New Jersey's veterans.

"New Jersey's veterans deserve the best this country has to offer," said Adler. "Their sacrifices have kept us safe and strong. I will fight every day to make sure New Jersey's heroes benefit from their service. This great country wouldn't exist without them."

Adler's district is home to nearly 65,000 veterans, including the largest population of WWII veterans nationwide. New Jersey's 3rd Congressional District includes Fort Dix, McGuire Air Force Base, and Lakehurst Naval Air Station, which constitute our country's only mega-base.
